ORDER

On December 5, 2024, the Court notified the parties that it was considering staying the instant case pending a decision by the United States Court of Appeals in a similar case. [Doc. 225]. In the Court's view, the forthcoming decision from the Court of Appeals would have a substantial or controlling effect on the issues in this case.

In light of the stay, the Clerk is FURTHER DIRECTED to ADMINISTRATIVELY CLOSE this case until the Eleventh Circuit issues its decision in In re Georgia Senate Bill 202. Administrative closure will not prejudice the rights of the parties to this litigation in any manner nor preclude the filing of documents.<sup>1</sup> No later than fourteen days after the Eleventh Circuit issues its decision, the parties are DIRECTED to submit a status report addressing how this case should proceed. The case will automatically reopen upon the submission of the status report.

SO ORDERED this 18th day of December, 2024.
