

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF OCONEE COUNTY

Angela Elder Johnson, Clerk
Oconee County, Georgia

STATE OF GEORGIA

SUZANNAH HEIMEL,

Plaintiff,

CIVIL ACTION NO. SUSR2024000058-LL

v.

SHARON GREGG and JAY HANLEY,

Defendants,

COMMON CAUSE GEORGIA and SUSAN NOAKES,

Defendant Intervener

MOTION FOR CLARIFICATION

Comes now, Suzannah Heimel, Petitioner, to request clarification on the following points:

1. Why are we here? On October 7, 2024, Judge allowed Motion of Intervener to enter this this case. She also dismissed this case on this same day.
2. Why was Petitioner dismissed for lack of standing, when she has standing per Sons of Confederate Veterans v. Henry County Board of Commissioners, October 2022?
3. Why was Petitioner not allowed to present her case at the October 7, 2024 hearing?
4. How does the Internever have standing as she has the same standing as the Petitioner?
5. Why is Intervener allowed to enter this case with challenges that are not addressed in the initial filing, which fall under a different state statute?

6. Why did the Judge dismiss this case based on the fact that she states she cannot tell the Board of Elections how to administer discretionary matters, when OCGA 21-2-229 states how these matters, which are not discretionary, are to be performed?

7. Why is the request of challenged voters voting by provisional ballot not an allowable remedy to this challenge?

8. Why has the Judge allowed the Intervener to enter the case with no clear or concrete injury?
